Finch Kickers Even Up in Game at Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis., Sept. 27.—The Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears' Club football teams played a 3 to 3 tie game here yesterday afternoon.

ninth when Murray took first on the shortstop playing Thomas at third. Two stolen bases and a single by Egglebrecht brought Murray home for the final count.

The only score for Betz came in the seventh when Taylor was hit by a pitched ball and on DeRuff's sacrifice landed at second. An error by Murray at third allowed Taylor to cross the plate.

BASEBALL TO HAVE A HOUSE-CLEANING

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Baseball's house cleaning, which began with a grand jury investigation here of alleged "fixing" of the 1919 world's series, is to become nationwide, it became known today through a statement issued by Harry H. Brigham, foreman of the Cook county grand jury. Players on every one of the sixteen major league ball clubs are seen by Mr. Brigham to be involved in evidence which will be presented to the grand jury when it again takes up the baseball scandal tomorrow.

"By the time we get into the new evidence we have," Brigham said.

Bad Teeth Mean Bad Health

Nowadays physicians accredit many common diseases to bad teeth or the improper care of them.

Decayed food that finds its way from the teeth to the stomach easily enters the blood current.

Neuritis, sciatica, acute appendicitis, diseases of the gall, bladder and ulcerated stomach are natural results of tooth infections.

Even if it is only to have them scaled and properly brushed. Have W. B. Burkett tell you their true condition.

REMEMBER! DELAY MEANS DECAY

and decay waits on no man. A few days will give a cavity full of seething decayed matter time to get beyond the control of the dentist. Do not hesitate—painless methods protect you.

Multiplying the Wheat Yield 21 Times Per Man

"It takes thirteen minutes of human labor to produce every bushel of wheat that comes out of a good American wheat state. In Europe a bushel of wheat required four and one-half hours of labor."

—Dearborn Independent.

Europe with its pre-war wealth of labor developed intensive hand cultivation to an extent undreamed of because unnecessary in America. In the United States labor shortage developed a type of farming which gave petroleum products a chance to lend a hand.

Increased labor-shortage in the United States has meant increased application of gasoline-power to the farms of the Middle West. Mechanical power has multiplied the wheat yield 21 times per man.

The fact that power machinery, and gasoline to run it, is going on the farms, is responsible in no small degree for the large crops produced for 1920. The great mission of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is to produce enough gasoline to supply the farmer with all he can use at the time and place he needs it, and at a low price.

"Domestic consumption of gasoline, far outstripping our production of crude petroleum, has forced gasoline up in price. During the first four months of 1920, gasoline consumption increased 796,030 gallons a day more than production during the same period." (Oil News, July 5, 1920.) While more crude oil is being produced in 1920 than even the most enthusiastic optimist dared predict five years ago, it is not sufficient to meet the ever increasing demand.

Every facility developed by the vast organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) through years of service, is being directed to the end of supplying the farms of the Middle West with necessary petroleum products. Transportation difficulties have been anticipated by this company, so that there has been no serious shortage of petroleum products to the farmer in any of the states served by this company—the dark green tank wagon delivering even to the tractor in the field in emergencies.

Helping the farmer produce and market his crop is one of the essential services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to the people of the Middle West.

BOUT WAS JUST PLAY FOR BENNY

Benny Leonard played through ten rounds of boxing with Pat Moran at the East Chicago arena Saturday afternoon and although he had the little Italian in a bad way at the end of the tenth stanza he failed of a knockout, apparently from lack of inclination. A number of fans who had traveled to East Chicago in the hope of seeing the champion score another knockout were much disappointed but the bout proved a treat to those who wanted to see Benny traveling in the pink of condition.

The show drew the largest crowd that has ever been at the East Chicago arena and 6,842 fans paid $27,123 to see the champion in the ring with the much touted New Orleans boy. Although the official figures show less than 7,000 paid to see the fight the arena was very nearly filled and with the exception of some box seats on the sunny side of the ring there were very few vacant seats. Since the arena will seat 10,000 the crowd was very estimated at 9,000 and including the complimentary tickets there were of course more than 7,000 present. Of the receipts Leonard got $14,000 and Moran $2,900.

Of the fight very little can be said. It was Leonard's battle from the time he stepped into the ring and when the first gong sounded all of Moran's confidence which he had boasted and which he showed when he entered the ring had left him. From that time until the end of the bout he appeared to be in constant fear of the champ and did his best to keep out of reach of that dangerous right hook. Once or twice he did step in to land a blow but in each instance he appeared afraid that he would be picking himself up from the canvas before he again got out of the ring.

Leonard on the other hand was wonderful. Entering the ring full of confidence he carried the fight to Moran in every round, dancing around like a dancing master, in for a tap with his left on Moran's chin and then out again before Moran had a chance to return. Benny was certainly in the condition that he claimed and at the end of the fight looked ready for another ten rounds with any one who could pick to send against him. Both Sailor Friedman and Charlie White issued challenges to the champion before the fight but after the battle he is inclined to think they wished they had never been so rash.

The first round was enough to dispel all doubts in the minds of the spectators as to who would be the winner of the bout and the only question was, "When will Leonard finish him?" For some reason or other, probably out of pity for the New Orleans youngster, he didn't choose to finish it but allowed Moran to stay for the full ten rounds, toying with him in every round and showing just how easy it is for a champion of his caliber to take care of any upstart who may presume to know how to box. At any rate Moran received an excellent boxing lesson and was mighty glad to hear the gong at the end of the tenth.

The second and all the other rounds were the same as the first with the exception that in the last three rounds Leonard chose to punish Moran enough to make him know that he had been in a battle. All during the fight he continued his dancing in and out, delivering a left jab to the jaw, almost always connecting, and then stepping back out of danger. When Moran did rather enough courage to attack out some left jab the champion invariably met them on his right glove. Only a few times did Leonard use his dangerous short right and in each case he jolted Moran until the challenger could almost feel himself hitting the canvas.

In the eighth Benny started in to give Moran a hard time and the youngster caught pretty before the gong sounded. Even Leonard's left jab carried an awful lot of steam and after he had landed the same tactic for the next two rounds Moran was quite bloody about the nose and mouth. In the last round the champion stepped in, twirled Moran around, slapped him at will but neglected to put across the blow which would have meant without a doubt a knockout. In his corner after the fight the champion showed not a scratch and was scarcely breathing hard.

The semi-windup between Leonard's sparring partner, Jimmie Burns and Joe Berger of Chicago was a nice bout and a close one. Berger substituted for Joe Hagen at ten minutes notice but managed to win by a slight shade from the tough little Burns. Burns proved himself a great little boxer and able to take punishment, but was outboxed by the Chicago boy. Chick Cooper in the six round preliminary won handily from Pete Carrs of Chicago. Cooper showed good headwork and promise of becoming quite a fighter. In the curtain raiser Mike Zalesky of West Hammond stopped Harvey Lance of Chicago in the third round of a scheduled four round go.

Although the fans didn't get any thrills from the ring fights they were treated to some real thrills when a daredevil aviator jumped from one plane to another in midair. The feat was accomplished both from wing to wing and between wing and ladder. An account of the Chicago papers round by round by wireless telephone which had been in stalled during the morning.

QUEEN OF BASEBALL SAYS THE KING SELDOM FROWNS

Mrs. Babe Ruth and her famous husband leaving baseball behind after a game. Mrs. Babe at her home and at the game and Babe's smile, which she says seldom fades.

If we call Babe Ruth King of Batters then Mrs. Babe rightfully becomes queen in baseball's realm. She's a modern, homey sort of queen, too, Babe avers. Always has a brwmdinger of a supper ready for Babe after the game when the team's at home. Sees that he doesn't catch cold, etc. And Mrs. Babe says it's easy to be the mate of the King when he smiles all the time. "If he fails to get a homer one day," says Mrs. Ruth, "he just grins when he comes home and says, 'I'll get one tomorrow.'" Babe is a home body, too. Prefers the arm chair to going out.

FROEBEL DEFEATED BY BOWEN

Bowen highweights from the Chicago Public School League conquered Froebel High of Gary, 8 to 3, in a game which was an exhibition of good football, despite the mauling weather. Bill Neill scored the touchdown in the third quarter after a sixty yard run, and Diodazy of the home eleven was dropped in his tracks behind the Froebel goal for a safety. Lineup: BOWEN (8)—Nelson, R. E.; Doyle, R. T.; Kempton, Edwards, R. G.; Hutchins, C.; Young, McWhorter, J. G.; Spencer, L. T.; Wilson, L. R.; Hamquist, Q. H.; Nevitt, H. H.; Cavanaugh, T. H.; H. DEMPEY TO MEET WILLARD AGAIN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 26.—Jesse Willard is going to fight again. Within six months the giant Kansan, who won the world's heavyweight title championship from Jack Johnson and lost it to Jack Dempsey, again will climb into a roped arena, and answer the call of the referee.

Jack Dempsey will be Willard's opponent, and the fight will be held in New York, probably under the direction of Jack Corbett and Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. The length of the bout and other conditions will be determined by the new state law of New York.

Willard has had the proposal under consideration for a week, and Friday he signed a contract and mailed it to New York.

EAST CHICAGO LOSES TO LINDBLOOM

Although outweighted and without a single veteran on the team East Chicago high school last Saturday played a superior brand of football and lost to the Lindbloom high school heavyweights of Chicago by only one touchdown. After the touchdown which was scored in the first quarter the team tightened up and held the Chicago boys scoreless during the remaining three quarters. A series of plunges and short end runs by the Lindbloom boys in the first quarter placed the ball on the three yard line and Francis then carried it over for the only tally of the game.

The lineup was:

Touchdown—Francis.

BETZ TEAM IS DEFEATED FOR HONOR

Consistent punting by Ulrich for the U. S. O. P. Co. together with excellent team support resulted in the defeat of the Betz by a score of 2 to 1 Saturday afternoon at Morris park. This game closed the season for the Hammond Mfg. Baseball League with honors to the U. S. O. P. Co. Both sides displayed keen playing and there was plenty of field action to delight the fans. Lynch who handled the ball for the Betz this season displayed good form after the season ending, getting ten strikeouts and allowing but four hits. Ulrich managed but nine strikes out but held his game to two scratch hits for the Betz.

Murray, for the U. S. O. P. Co. the first man up, took a single and on Weimer's double into right brought home the first count in the first inning. Saunders gathered in one in the second and the third run came in the
